<p&gt;Badugi Rules
                       A Step by Step Guide</p&gt;
<p&gt;In this hand two players are heads-up in a game of&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt; limit Badugi. &#128535; This means all betting is in pre-agreed, fixe d units.</p&qt;
<p&gt;1. The Deal&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Players&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt; place the big and small blinds, and each player &#128535; receives fo ur hole cards. The first</p&gt;
<p&gt; betting round follows, as players must call the big blind.&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Player 1 has two hearts, &#128535; so&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt; at the moment their hand is a three-card nine-high. They complete the big blind and</p&gt;
<p&gt; their opponent checks.&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;2. The &#128535; First Draw&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Player 1 is trying to make a Badugi
                                           a</p&gt;
<p&gt; four-card hand of different suits and ranks
                                                   so 😗 discards t heir higher heart (the 5 )</p&gt;
<p&gt; in an attempt to draw a better replacement. They manage to draw a &#12
8535; diamond for four</p&gt;
<p&gt; different suits, but unfortunately for them they have also paired their r 9. Their</p&at;
<p&gt; opponent also draws one &#128535; card, and another betting round fol lows. Both players check.</p&gt;
<p&gt;3.&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt; The Second Draw&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Player 1 needs to discard their second 9, and &#128535; draws a 7. Low er cards</p&gt;
<p&gt; are great, but this one happens to also be a club for two clubs in &#1
28535; the hand. Their</p&gt;
<p&gt; opponent draws one card again. Another betting round follows, and both players check</p&gt;
<p&gt; again.&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;4. The Third Draw&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Player &#128535; 1 keeps the lower club and discards the 9, drawing th e</p&qt;
<p&gt; King of diamonds. This means they now have a &#128535; Badugi
                                                                          a han d of four cards of different</p&gt;
<p&gt; ranks and suits
                          even though with a King-high it is 😗 far fr om the best Badugi hand</p&gt;
<p&gt; possible. Player 2 draws one card, and the final betting round takes p lace. Player 😗 2</p&gt;
<p&gt; checks, Player 1 bets and Player 2 calls.&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;We can see that Player 2 has a decent&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt; three-card hand of &#128535; A-4-8, but Player 1 wins the pot because any four-card hand beats</p&gt;
<p&gt; any three-card hand &lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
